Cost: $45

Docent lead tour and Tasting

As a Yugoslavian immigrant settling in Oakland in 1920, John Vukasin had a dream to establish a custom gourmet coffee roaster that combined European style coffees with guaranteed freshness and impeccable service. In 1924, he created the Peerless Coffee Company to supply local hotels and restaurants with only the highest quality of roasted coffees. Soon, his reputation for perfection spread, making Peerless Coffee much sought after by restaurant and retail industry. Lunch will be after tour at Fat Lady Restaurant in Jack London Square.
